

THEY'RE TALKING WAR

Words and Music by Jessie Lloyd

In marching rhythm (not too fast)

1. They're talk - ing
2. They said to
3. They say it's war; who's talk - ing war? The yel - low press; we know what fight (boy, how they lied!) To save our homes, coun - try and fine; who says it's fine? War brings a boom; (Yeah!) we know the

for. _____ They — sent us to wal - low in pride. _____ Well we fought and we won, as they kind. _____ All the pric - es hit the roof and the

*NOTE:— The words in italics should be shouted.

gas and mud, While the rich stayed home, mak - ing said to do, But the banks got our homes and our wag - es lag, And the poor work - ing goof stands and cash from blood. Try it a - gain, (Oh, just) try it a - coun - try too; Told us to give, (yes, give) give till it holds the bag; Take it a - way, (no, thanks) take it a - gain, (just once!) We'll not do your fight - ing then, (do it yourselves!) hurts, (we know!) While they grabbed our ver - y shirts, (they would!) way, (thanks a lot!) For you can't fool us to - day. (we're through!)

D. C.
(back to the Introduction)